

Co-curricular Enriched Opportunities

Grade	Experience	Dates	Description	Contact
All Grades (Ages 14 - 17)	Encounters with Canada, Ottawa	On-going throughout the year, week chosen depends on student interest	A national program that has been going strong for 25 years; one week program of Canadian Studies held at the Terry Fox Centre in Ottawa from early Autumn to late Spring. Open to students between the ages 14 - 17. The first part of the week is dedicated to Canadian Studies; the later is organized around that week's theme: ie- medicine, journalism, arts & culture, the list goes on ! Students are encouraged to offset the cost by finding community sponsors. www.encounters-rencontres.ca	See Mrs Berg if interested for package
All Grades	Chess Club	On-going throughout the year; you can join at any time	Juniors and Seniors meet once a week at lunch; competitions are held throughout the year both within the school and outside the school.	See Mr Greene if interested
All Grades	School Reach,	Begins in October	Reach is a general knowledge based trivia game. Lunch practices begin in October with competitions with other schools happening in Semester Two. It's a lot of fun !	Junior Coach = Mrs Berg Senior Coach = Mr Greene
Grades 11 &amp; 12	SHAD Valley, based in Waterloo	See Mr Greene in October , program takes place in the summer	Students who have a passion for math, sciences and technology get to have the experience of a lifetime at one of the 10 participating universities. Student costs can be offset by bursaries and scholarships. www.shad.ca	See Mr Greene if interested
Grades 11 &amp; 12	QLEAD (Queen's Leadership, Excellence, and Development Conference), Kingston	See Mrs Berg in December , conference is in February	Held over three days, QLEAD is designed to appeal to a broad range of enthusiastic and driven students. Hosted by Queen's Commerce students, participants involve themselves in interactive activities, speakers and workshops - all the while learning about themselves and their leadership potential. Cost to the student approx. $200 CHECK OUT WEBSITE @ comsoc.queensu.ca/qlead	See Mrs Berg if interested

Co-curricular Enriched Opportunities

Grade	Experience	Dates	Description	Contact
Grade 10	Central Ontario Leadership Seminar (COLS)	See Mr Greene in December (interviews), application date - January.	One student is selected from each school in the Central Ontario region. COLS is a Canadian organization dedicated to the recognition and development of leadership potential. The seminar is an all expenses paid three day leadership experience. http://cols.ca/	Contact Mr. Greene if interested
All Grades	The National Technology Youth Leadership Conference, Queen's University	Apply (on-line) early to be considered for sponsorship; conference is in May	NTYLC is a four-day conference for Canadian high school students. Using a hands-on interactive approach, they strive to show students what it means to be a leader in tomorrow's world of technology (computers, engineering, bio-tech, management, leadership) www.ntylc.org	Contact Mrs Berg if interested
All Grades	E = mc <sup>2</sup> , Queen's University	On-line registration is usually available starting in January , runs in May	This is an opportunity to participate in a one week program designed to give secondary students a university experience both academically and socially. Participants choose their subject of study for the week. www.queensu.ca/enrichment	Contact Mr. Greene if interested
All Grades	LEAP (Learning Enrichment Advancement Program), McMaster University	Apply by end of March , program runs in July	L.E.A.P. is a four-week intensive summer program (July) that takes students from engineering fundamentals to hands-on projects. This program combines university level challenges with opportunities to explore, meet new people and have fun. CHECK OUT WEBSITE @ leap.mcmaster.ca/	Contact Mr Greene if interested

Co-curricular Enriched Opportunities

Grade	Experience	Dates	Description	Contact
Grade 11	Scientifically Yours Conference, Brock University	Indicate interest by March . Interviews are held with Mrs Berg and Mr Wyatt. Conference is in May.	Open to grade 11 female students who display an interest in science and/or math. Discussions with female professionals, workshops, social activities, must stay on campus for the 3 day conference, cost is approx. $200.00, space is limited within the board- we can send one participant and nominate another if there is space. CHECK OUT WEBSITE @ brocku.ca/scienficallyyours/	Contact Mrs Berg / Mr Wyatt if interested
All Grades	DEEP, University of Toronto	See Mr Greene in March , applications are due in April	Spend your summer studying science, engineering and applied science at the University of Toronto. Choose from one week to four week programs; bursaries are available. Applicants should be highly motivated and excel in math and science. Residence living is optional. www.engineering.utoronto.ca	See Mr Greene if interested
Grade 11	Computing Insights, University of Toronto	See Mrs Berg in March , applications are due in April	An exciting three week summer enrichment program that provides a chance to learn about computer science and current research. Students need to be self motivated, curious, creative, logical, strong academically. http://www.cs.utoronto.ca/ci	See Mrs Berg if interested
Grade 10	High Ropes Course- Day Camp, Brock University	See Mrs Berg in April , Camp is in May	Camp is an one day training session which enhances individual / team building skills and assists the participants in acquiring the basic skills and safety features in using climbing equipment. There is a student fee. Limited spots available.	See Mrs Berg if interested
All Grades	CLAY (Creating Leadership Among Youth), McMaster University	Interviews are in early April , conference is in May	Participants take part in a three day leadership conference led by University student leaders; they also experience University life. There is a student fee. Students arrange their own transportation. www.msu.mcmaster.ca/clay/	Contact Mrs Berg if interested

Co-curricular Enriched Opportunities

Other Info:

Mr. Greene and Mrs. Berg can be found in Room 1 or 3; opportunities are announced on the morning announcements as well.

Some opportunities have limited space.

Interviews / school recommendations are required for some opportunities.

Students are responsible for informing their teachers of their absence prior to attending the activity as well as catching up on lessons / work.

revised Sept/08